Understanding the Student Code of Conduct

Kelli Nehring, M.S.
Student Conduct and Community Standards, UTSA

Friday, October 2, 2015, 2:00pm – 2:50pm, Location: BB 3.01.06

Abstract

This presentation informs students of the Student Conduct and Community Standards Office, the Student Code of Conduct, and the expectations of The University of Texas at San Antonio. The Student Code of Conduct will be discussed in great detail and is regarded as the document that governs all students at UTSA and addresses both behavioral and academic realms.

Bio

Kelli Nehring serves as a Coordinator for Student Conduct and Community Standards. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture Communications and a Master of Science in Business with a focus in Management and Leadership, both from Tarleton State University. She previously served university students while working within Student Activities, Transition and Family Relations, and Residential Living and Learning at Tarleton State University.